Re: MB Docket No. 10-56

Dear Chairman Genachowski:

I am a Comcast employee, and I wanted to go on record with the FCC expressing my support for the NBC-Universal /Comcast joint venture.

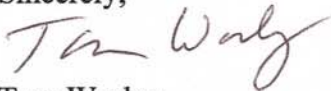

Obviously I have a bias in this matter; but that said, I think I have good reason to be proud of my Company. I have worked in a Comcast office in rural Delaware for over 15 years. During that time I seen Comcast grow from a one service company – a 30 channel television lineup – to the multiple products that it delivers today. It has really been amazing what has transpired over this time.

But the Company's growth is not what has impressed me the most. Rather it is the work environment that the Company has created for its employees. If there ever was a Company that trys to manage its employees by the human resource book, it is Comcast. Our work environment couldn't be better. Comcast truly treats us fairly and with respect. And I think Comcast has gone the extra mile in its attempts to support diversity in my workplace.

Comcast has tried very hard to be a good corporate citizen in Delaware. Not only does the Company support numerous charities but also it sponsors an employee day of service called Comcast Cares Day. On my own time, I have participated in eight Comcast Cares Day projects including packing food boxes at the Delaware Food Bank, landscaping at the Bomb Bay Hook Refuge and removing trash from a City of Dover lake.

All in all, I think Comcast is a great Company and deserving of the Commission support of the joint venture. I hope you will vote yes.

Sincerely,
